There was a good deal of fun at the opera house last evening, when Tom Waters and a well-rounded bunch of stage artists appeared in the piece, "The May of Laughter." The audience was delighted with the efforts of the comedians and the chorus girls, while the three-foot dwarf with a six-foot voice was not the least of the show. The company went today to Claremont, N. H., where it appears tonight.

About thirty school friends of Miss Sadie Haddigan pleasantly surprised her at her home on Klancy street last night, the occasion being her thirteenth birthday. The evening was spent in playing games and singing. The hostess was presented a gold bracelet as a token of esteem from her friends, the presentation being received by her with well-chosen words. A beautiful lunch was served by Mrs. Haddigan, and the party broke up at 11:00, everybody wishing Miss Sadie many more birthdays.

The following item was taken from a Holyoke, Mass., paper: "Arthur Cayhoe, the fifteen-year-old son of Mrs. Albert Cayhoe of 313 High street, was playing football with his schoolmates yesterday afternoon when he was seriously injured. He was taken to the office of Dr. R. F. Morrison, who found that his right leg was dislocated at the knee and the muscles torn, and that his left shoulder was also dislocated. The dislocations were reduced and the boy was removed to his home. An X-ray was taken of the leg yesterday by Dr. Morrison. The boy's mother is a daughter of Mrs. Ellen Premier of Granite street."

WILL PLEAD INSANITY.

Case of Joseph E. Ranger Charged With Arson.

Rutland, Oct. 15.—It is understood that Joseph E. Ranger of Hancock, who is confined at the Rutland county jail on a charge of arson and whose case is set for trial next Monday afternoon, will plead insanity. Ranger was indicted by the grand jury on a charge of setting fire to three beds at the Voss house in Pittsfield May 1, 1907. He went into court a few days ago and pleaded guilty to the indictment before Judge Alfred A. Hall.

The fire at the Voss house was discovered by persons outside of the building who saw the curtains burning. They immediately rushed up stairs and met Ranger coming down fully dressed although he was supposed to have retired some time before. Four beds in different rooms were found with the covers turned back and three of them were on fire.

Ranger is a single man about 41 years old. He has been without father and mother since a child and it is said to have knocked about the world considerably. His attorney, E. H. O'Brien, will go to Hancock tomorrow to take affidavits in the case. He will also visit Addison, where Ranger worked at one time.

LOAF AND PLAY GOLF

Is Now the Ambition of Rev. Willard Scot of Worcester, Mass.

Worcester, Mass., Oct. 15.—The Rev. Dr. Willard Scott of Piedmont church, has resigned his pastorate so he can devote all his time, it is stated, to golf. The clergyman, who has conducted a successful pastorate here for nine years, is quoted as follows:

"The presentation of my resignation was a cool and contented action. I have a whole lot to do outside if I want to do it, but in want to loaf and play golf."

"I have worked hard, yes, I have done more work in 30 years than a good many men in 60 years. I have collapsed twice under the strain. When business interferes with pleasure, drop business."

"That's what I am going to do—drop business and play golf continually."

Deny the Complaint Generally.

New York, Oct. 15.—August Belmont and other defendants filed answers in the United States circuit court yesterday in the action of Daniel W. Borrowes of Chicago, in which the complainant seeks to have the local traction merger represented in the Interborough-Metropolitan company set aside, declaring it to be illegal, a combination of "competing roads" and a violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The defendants deny all the material allegations in the complaint. They deny that the merger constitutes a monopoly or that it was created with illegal intent. The roads, it is argued, while some of them run in same directions, were in no sense competing roads.

Basket Ball Secures Standing.

Burlington, Oct. 15.—At a college meeting held yesterday noon, at the university of Vermont, the following men were elected: Base ball manager, Chase, '08; basket ball manager, Ranney, '08; manager of track, Ferris, '08; assistant base ball manager, Story, '09. It was, moreover, decided that basket ball should this year receive the full support of the student body.

The Daylight Store

A GREAT START.

We are getting a great start on our Fall business. Either the trade like our methods or we have the goods at prices that they feel are right. It may be both. Just follow down this page and see what we think of ourselves.

LACES.

First we want to say that our Laces come from Muser Brothers of New York. We have been lace shopping for 15 years and last season settled down to those people as having the best values that we could buy. If any concern has cheap trade that want course Laces these will not please. If one wants fine, dainty Lace designs at a small price, better than you have seen in other cities of Vermont, Muser Brothers' Laces will appeal to you as your kind.

Several hundred dollars' worth of these Laces are just being unpacked.

Muser Brothers' Laces are made on special machines and have a smoothness that other Laces do not have.

The new Mechlin, Venice, Maline, Normandies, Baby Irish, Spanish Laces and Point d'Esprit, also all of the more common kinds in Thread Laces are here.

We have Grey and Navy 56-inch Repellent Cloth for skirts, dresses and shirts at 59c. This is our last lot, as mill will not make any more. (Best cloth at price in our store.)

SHEETS AND PILLOW SLIPS.

Again we strike hard. Anyone that sells these goods at our prices won't have much left for profit. These goods are at last season's prices when Atlantic cotton could be bought at 30c instead of 38c. Are you ready for the saving, or would you rather wait and pay more. We cannot protect you only so far as this purchase is concerned.

42 by 36 inch Pillow Slips at 12 1-2c.

2 1-4 by 2 3-4 Bleached Sheets at 85c. Made of good cotton.

2 1-4 by 2 3-4 Bleached D and L Sheets at 95c. Please notice the extra length.

The best 2 1-2 by 2 3-4 Atlantic Sheet, hand torn and straight hemmed, for $1.00. (Cotton for this sheet will cost you $1.05.)

DRESS GOODS.

We have said Dress Goods more than once this Fall and as long as we have such a line as we now have will keep speaking of them as our best things, and our best advertising. They are the kinds that bring us more business.

For 50c one would hardly realize that they were not being shown 75c or even more expensive goods.

We have a soft Serge at 50c that is all wool and a fine one. Just a little better at 75c. Ask to see these, as they are some of the desirable kinds and are getting scarce.

At $1.00 we have just in values that would be good at $1.25 or $1.35. These are in Batistes, Panama and Serge, both in black and colors.

Our Broadcloths are 25c per yard less than regular prices. It's our way of increasing our Dress Goods business.

FALL SUIT STYLES!

The Suit styles this season have reached a state of perfection. All extreme and all loud effects have been avoided. Fabrics and the cut of the garments are refined, conservative and artistic. The Coat is slightly form fitting and of medium length, with and without center vents. The collars and lapels are of moderate length and width. The Trousers are cut of moderate width and of a very graceful form. There never was a season when the styles were handsomer or more satisfactory. Suits at $10.00, $12.00, $15.00 up to $25.00. We'll be pleased to put our time against yours and show you what the new season has brought forth. We fear neither scrutiny nor comparison.
